Conditions of use:

PrintMulti is divided into a base part and a part with extensions. The base part covers all features of the version 1.0.4.1 and some extensions.
If a license is required depends on the operating system and if the printing user is logged into a windows domain (assuming commercial use in this case).

This lead to the following constellations:

- PrintMulti is installed on a PC using a client operating system (2000, XP,… , Windows 10). The printing user is not logged into a domain.
  → All features (base- and extended) are free; no license needed.

- PrintMulti is installed on a PC using a client operating system. The printing user is logged into a domain.
  → Base features are free; for using extended features, a client license is required.

- PrintMulti is installed on a server operating system
  → A server license is needed which covers base- and extended features.

There is only a single version for all variants. If a license is needed, the printed page or exported data will contain a license watermark or there is a functional limitation (for raw printing) which is logged into the log file.

Please test all features before purchasing a license.

Service or maintenance is not included in the license fee.
